

Allison Beresnyak Karakis Bio

Allison Karakis, Government Relations Manager, joined the Bank in October 2015 and manages the Bank's in-district government relations program including the Public Policy Network (PPN), a coalition of advocates who have a strong interest in financial services, housing and community and economic development. She provides education and networking opportunities to PPN members. She also builds and maintains relationships with congressional offices throughout the Bank's three states; West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

Allison has worked in both U.S. Senate and U.S. House offices. In her most recent role with a House member, she oversaw district operations. This included developing and implementing an outreach plan for the Congressman and his staff to develop relationships in the nonprofit, business, government, veteran and education communities; managing all aspects of the Congressman's district schedule; organizing large-scale events; and developing advisory boards.
